<sup>2</sup> The parties will make a good faith effort to have a final set of exhibits by this date. The parties reserve the right to request the introduction into evidence of trial exhibits not made available at the exhibit review, if necessary, because of such situations where the party elects to introduce an exhibit at trial that has been previously provided to the opposing party in discovery but which the party did not contemplate using as an exhibit at trial at the time of the exhibit review, or where the party learns of additional evidence after the exhibit review and intends to introduce that evidence at trial. Each party also reserves its right to object to the introduction of such evidence as appropriate, including (for example) on the grounds that such evidence is unduly prejudicial or should have been produced earlier or is otherwise excludable. The parties will make all reasonable efforts to alert the opposing side of any such objections at the earliest possible time.

<sup>3</sup> If the Government learns of additional information after September 13, 2024, it may seek leave to supplement the notice.

<sup>4</sup> The defense will make a good faith effort to disclose all witnesses the defendant intends to call in its case-in-chief. But the defense reserves the right to call other witnesses depending upon the government's proof presented during the trial. The government likewise reserves its right to add to its witness list depending upon the proof presented in the defendant's case-in-chief.
